

4.1: Open Source Software

03 August 2021 03:53 PM

Open source software

The category of s/w/programs whose license do not impose much conditions

- Give users freedom to run/use the s/w for any purpose

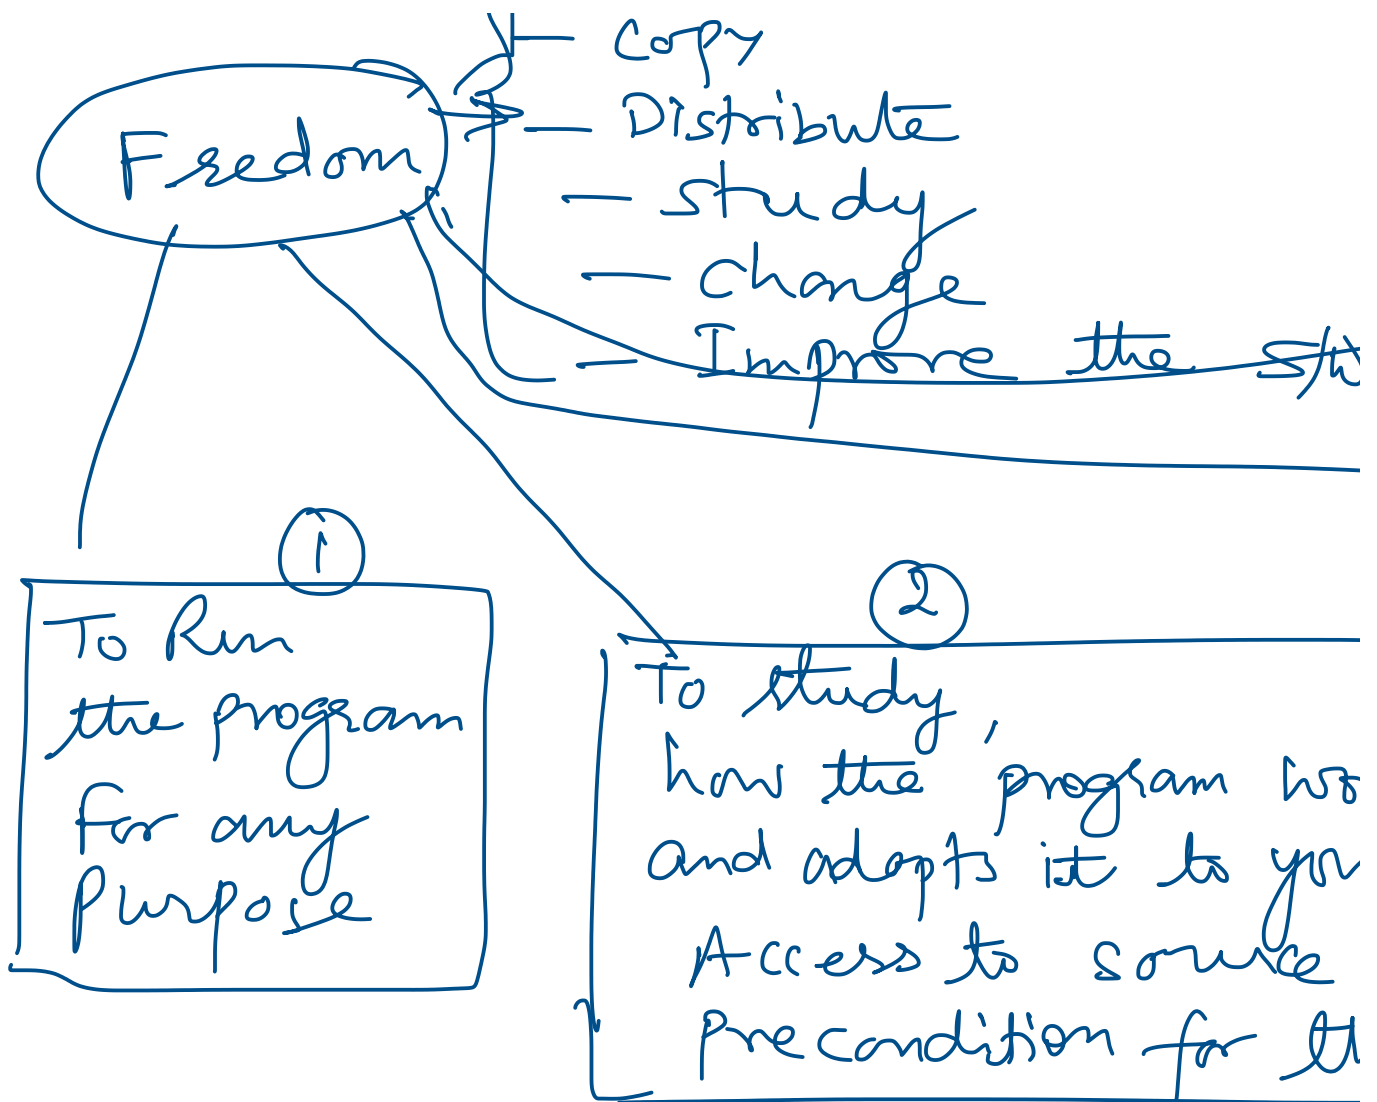

- Freely accessible
- Freely used, changed, Improved, & C
- No payment are needed to be

Richard Stallman's Free s/w Four

Definition:

- Free s/w is matter of libe
 - It is the matter of user's
- IT Run

Software

Free (Freely accessible)

Open Source

Open Source Software

- The category of software/programs whose license do not impose much conditions
- OSS give users freedom to run, use the software for any purpose (Study, Modify, Redistribute) without any

Free software	Free software is matter of liberty not price
Free software	Freedom to : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Run • Study • Copy • Distribute • Change • Improve the software
Free software	(1)To run the program for any purpose
(Richard Stallman)	(2)To study how the program , works and adopts it to your need(1), access to source code

	(3)To redistribute copies so you can help your neighbor (2)
	(4) Freedom to imporve your program and release your improvements to the public